

2016 Election Spotlight

Senate District 7 – Elaine Phillips

Part of Nassau County
Open Seat

The Office: New York State Senate District 7

CSEA Region: Long Island Region 1

Registered Voters:

Democrat:	86,718 (39.6%)
Republican:	65,498 (29.9%)
No Party:	55,304 (25.3%)
Other:	11,405 (5.2%)

The Candidates: Candidate: Elaine Phillips (R)

Elaine Phillips is currently the Mayor of the Village of Flower Hill.

Phillips will stand with CSEA in opposition to a state constitutional convention, a question that will be put before voters in 2017. She understands the value that public employees bring to our communities and will fight to ensure that pension benefits aren't put at risk through a constitutional convention.

Additionally, Phillips will fight to ensure that Long Island schools get their fair share of state aid.

Opponent: Adam Haber (D)

Adam Haber is a retired Wall Street trader who has recently served on the Nassau Interim Finance Authority and Roslyn Board of Education.

Incumbent: Jack Martins (R)

Senator Martins is running for the 3rd Congressional District. Accordingly, he will be vacating the State Senate seat he has held since 2011.

CSEA Endorsement: Elaine Phillips
