

CSEA WOMEN, YOUR POWER IS YOU.

As a woman, you're a financial force in our community and economy, accounting for an average of 75% of consumer spending.

TAKE CONTROL OF YOUR FUTURE. INVEST IN YOURSELF.

One simple decision you can make today could be a game-changer for your finances. Best of all, it's a CSEA member benefit.

At no cost, meet with your CAP COM financial advocate to discuss your financial situation. Obtain guidance to overcome challenges you face today and set goals for the future. Together with your financial advocate, explore solutions for your needs and create your action plan.

GET STARTED

To obtain this valuable CSEA benefit powered by CAP COM, call to schedule your phone, virtual, or in-person appointment at (844) 622-CSEA.

"We understand the financial challenges women face and recognize each situation is unique. Access the financial expertise and care you deserve!"

- Susan Fogarty, Chief Relationship Officer
CAP COM Federal Credit Union

Facing financial challenges? You're not alone.

23%

how much less a woman earns than a man overall

36%

of women are worried about personal or household debt

41%

of women are concerned about covering the bills

5

average number of years women outlive men, requiring ongoing income

only 12%

of women are very confident they can retire comfortably

Federally insured
by NCUA

Local 1000 AFSCME, AFL-CIO